ROTOCON set to debut at Propak East Africa

The event takes place on May 10-12, 2022, in Kenya.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (April 13, 2022)—ROTOCON is a first-time exhibitor at Propak East Africa 2022, the largest packaging, printing and plastics exhibition in the whole of East Africa. The three-day event takes place on May 10-12 in Kenya.

Presented on ROTOCON's stand D21 will be the ECOLINE series of equipment for label printing, inspection, and finishing in addition to auxiliary solutions for print production such as a plate moulder and anilox roller cleaner.

Launched in early 2017 by ROTOCON, the ECOLINE (economy line) brand carefully balances the highest possible specifications with competitive pricing. Over 100 ECOLINE flexo presses, finishing machines, and auxiliary solutions are installed throughout Sub-Saharan Africa, Mauritius, Europe, Australia and the US.

John Lomberg, ROTOCON director for market & business development and co-owner is a conference speaker during Propak East Africa on Thursday, May 12. He will discuss printing technology, trends, innovations, and solutions that drive the label and packaging printing industry.

"A key element of my role with ROTOCON is to replicate its success in East and West Africa," said Lomberg. "Propak East Africa is an ideal gateway to network with this growing and dynamic market. I look forward to meeting show visitors during the Conference and on ROTOCON's stand D21."
